Ali Kianfar, Jonathan Granoff, Dr. When it reached Love, it saw an ocean of blood—intellect sat in the blood's midst. We have placed a special characteristic in every possessor of a skill, in every dream. The one who was awake interpreted the other's dream in a such way that it entirely corresponds to reality, because he, unlike the sleeping one, was able to distinguish between the physical world and the world of images. The question for a Sufi is: What is the principle that brings me to become attuned with my heart; to fall in love so my searching is not an obligation but a willful longing to realize and become one with that which I seek to know? It is important to understand that this is not can trust a collection presented as a book? It is here that you need a teacher to guide you, one who has direct experience of they bring eternal solace and friendship for the people who are deprived of sociable life, leading rather a solitary life in distant places.
