It took me awhile to get into it. It is a light and easy read with a great ending. Page Count :

Now, I am being very honest when I say that I don't cry while reading books, I don't. Our therapists are here to help you and are pleased to hear from you. Pretty disappointed.

It took off a star from my rating because there were so many characters being introduced. Stellar Award nominee and James Cleveland award winner, Beyond the Storm has gone on to executive produce an album and write several songs, open a troubled teen girls home, and help her husband to rebuild and expand a great ministry. If you have ever been having a good day and got a call from someone a relative, colleague, or friend and after talking to them you felt worse, then you know precisely what I mean.
