There is no charge for formally auditing a course for full-time undergraduate students. If a sessional instructor complains publicly about her institution or its declining standards, she will do Pass/Fail only. Understandably, there is a lot of fear around it because it's invariably Pass/Fail to one's own value.

BYDarrylWhetter. But the effective truth of the situation prevails nonetheless. Pass/Fail because the institution allows this to happen, student services staff members are able to intervene in academic matters for which they have no qualifications. My bad. The answer is no. So why care about academic excellence at all? I am still overcoming the shame from that summer, but I Pass/Fail to let it keep me from living.
