As the story opens, Montessa is on her way home from work when she is fallen upon and abducted by serial killer, Lu. My most sincere gratitude goes also to the following, all of whom had an important part in the making of this book. After the commercial exploit of Sergio Leones A Fistful of Dollars Per un pugno di dollari, producers and distributors were quick to jump onto another, much more fruitful bandwagon.

Bradshaw exercises a deft slide in perspective in this, moving from one character to another. What makes it work is its ability to tap into our archetypal fears that we all share in our childhood. The resurrection that follows, accompanied by the unexpected explosion of the witch's sarcophagus, shows how Bava's tactics consisted in a reliance on fresh rendering or novel manipulation of traditional images. Salvage is a story built on a solid and creepy premise.

The Golden Compass. This is an attractive version of this classic. The table is upturned by the introduction of a stranger I know, cue Ms. Marilyn Burns is superb as the terrified sole survivor who is pursued and tormented during the last half of the
