Hello, Mary Lou. Silly fun for all audiences.

Morristown, NJ. Sung by the Everly Brothers, this poignant song of lost love. This lullaby might even be a little bit better for fathers to sing than mothers. A good, old-fashioned song about good, old-fashioned times, this tune provides you and your audiences with some light fun.

This is a possibly contestable version of a most powerful song. Be sure to check out Perpetuum Jazzile's version on YouTube and consider adding their stormy sound effects to your performance.
