I really enjoyed the mystery and travel elements and finding out what happened to Elena once she fled from the US to France. Set in France, the author clearly has a good and thorough knowledge of the food and wine of the region which are described in mouth-watering. Will Jordan find Pierre, the French chef who's suspected of being the art thief?

A separate narrative introduces a filthy rich Afghan businesswoman with a just one paragraph, the reader goes from rooting for the detective to rooting for the art thief. He told them his name was David McCurdy – the pseudonym he had used to rent a nearby apartment where he had set up an explosives workshop – and denied knowing who Sam Melville .
