Occupations which left time free for study were preferred. This is not science You're only proving either that: A you're an extremist on the right or B your IQ is in single digit numbers.

Inthemedievalperiodtherewasnosystemofcommunallyfundedelementarysco Instead, the study of Halachah and Kabbalah – both are elaborate, textual, self-referential, abstract edifices – preoccupied Jewish intellectual interests. Either because scientific knowledge originated outside Jewish society, or because scientific inquiry could divert Jews focusing exclusively on Torah, premodern Jewish culture harbored suspicion toward the study of nature, classified as "secular learning.

I invite you to think of a time that you expected perfection from. The constant religious persecution of scientists? So Jeremiah, like all the prophets, was ultimately a voice of hope.
