And that was the start of learning that purely natural ingredients had been used for skin, hair and body in India by women for generations. So she turned to coconut oil, something the locals used and recommended, and it worked.

ShowingLateinthebookspoileralert!Daughter of the Land by Gene Stratton Porter is her least sentimental book. The dialogue in the first few chapters falls apart because she can't master how much the country bumpkins speech patterns measure up to the people who are more worldly.
