Poetry is not just literature full of rhymes, but it contains the emotions and inspirations behind it. Well, yeah. The night gave me a knife, The knife was swift and gleamed in the light; The air in my throat escaped, leaving my lungs Boughtwithaprice, Owhataprice! I mean, that can sit with it, can take it in, can listen to it, can let it stand whole, can not necessarily feel the need to engage it argumentatively. Guilty Pleasure. And I think that poetry can provide those kinds of chunks.
