They expunge evil from themselves and they will care nothing for wickedness, wanting only that which is not corrupt. I said. The fourth novel in the series to be called. Instead, we are presented with endless anecdotes about bizarre things happening, but they are usually one-offs and have little or no independent or reliable corroboration. Either way, both are deadly to the Christian faith.

Other interpretations offer equally exotic "solutions". Let's try to settle them and then go on to the .
